Index to each Number.

NUMBER I.

	PAGE.
INTRODUCTION to the Magazine,	1
Cariots of Men, Aſſes, and Camels, deſcribed,	2
Mr. Shurtleff's account of the revival of Religion in Portſmouth, N. H. 1743,	5
Revival of Religion there in 1803,	9
Account of the oppoſition to it,	12
Deſcription of the miniſters in Portſmouth,	13
The words doctrine, and doctrines, explained,	14
Converſion of a young man in Portſmouth,	15
Practical duties mentioned,	22
Review of Dr. Buckminſter's Sermon, on his Son's Ordination,	22
Review of the Monthly Anthology,	25
Review of the Piſcataqua Magazine, No. 1,	26
Review of Dr. Stillman's Sermon,	27
Review of Mr. Allen's Treatiſe on Baptiſm,	29
Revival of Religion in Portſmouth, 1805,	30
Miſcellaneous Intelligence,	35
"The promiſe is to you and your children,"	35
Poetry,	36
Concluſion, the account of Elijah and the falſe Prophets,	36

INDEX.

INDEX TO NUMBER II.

Explanation of the word Clergy, and the origin of that order of men, 39
History of the Clergy in the third Century, 41
Their history in the fourth and fifth Centuries, 42
The doctrine of Christ described, 47
Baptism explained, 50
Infant sprinkling, a Pagan practice, 52
Conversion of a Negro from Africa, 52
Review of Dr. Baldwin's Sermon, preached at Sedgwick, 56
Review of Mr. Allen's Treatise on Baptism, 59
Woburn difficulty settled, 62
The excommunication of Deacon Burley from the Baptist church in Exeter, 63
Text, "Else what shall they do that are baptized for the dead? explained, 65
Baptism of nine coloured people in Boston, by Thomas Paul, May 1805, 66
The Baptist Association at Epping, N. H. June 1805, 69
Revival of religion in Portsmouth, N. H. 1805, 69
Revival of Religion in Gilmantown, 71
Quarterly meeting of the Freewill Baptists in Somersworth, August 1805, 72

INDEX TO NUMBER III.

History of the Clergy in the sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth Centuries, 75—81
Doctrine described, 83
Conversion of a young woman, 85
Practical duty described, 86

Description of a fashionable meeting, 88
Review of Mr. Alden's farewell sermon, 89
Review of Mr. Harris' Military sermon, 96
Review of Mr. Worcester's sermon on Infant sprinkling, 98
Installation at Woburn, 101
Remarks on liberal education, 102
Names of the Freewill Baptist Ministers, 103
Freewill Baptist yearly meeting at Gorham, 104
Revival of religion in Portsmouth, N. H. 105
The riot and tumult there, in 1805, 106
Conversion of the Jews, 108

INDEX TO NUMBER IV.

History of the Clergy in the tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, and fourteenth Centuries, 112
Faith described as a principle of the doctrine of Christ, 116
A short sermon to the Calvinistic Baptists, 118
The new testament account of prayer, 127
Review of the Methodist discipline, 138
Revival of religion in Alton, N. H. 1805 142
Revival of religion in Woodstock, Vermont, 1806, 144
Revival of religion in Wilderness Branch, 146
Revival of religion in Ipswich, (Chebacco parish,) 148
New Testament Dictionary, 150
Overturns among the Clergy in Newhampshire and Massachusetts, 153
Overturns among the Baptist Clergy, 154
Remarks on Dr. Buckminster's discourse, 155
Poetry on my freedom from human masters, 156

INDEX TO NUMBER V.

History of the Clergy in the fifteenth Century, 157
Doctrine of Baptism and laying on of hands described, 161
Description of a Christian, 168
Review of the assembly's catachism, 164
Review of Messers Sweat and Fletcher's sermon on Infant sprinkling, 172
Review of an address from the Clergy at Woolwich to their parishioners 175
Yearly meeting of the Freewill Baptists in New-Durham, June 1806, 177
Baptism of ten natives of India in the Ganges, 180
Remarks on the Association of Churches, 181
Remarks on the minutes of the Newhampshire Baptist Association held in Lebanon, June 1806, 183
Sketch of John Calvin's life and doctrine, 187
The present time—The Clergy turning from Federalism to Republicanism, &c. 190
New Testament Dictionary, 191
A word to the wise—concerning Mr. Bachelder, 192

INDEX TO NUMBER VI.

History of the Clergy in the sixteenth Century, 193
A description of the resurrection of the dead, 195
Conversion of a negro woman, 201
Practical religion illustrated by example, 203
Review of Mr. Collier's missionary sermon, 205

Review of Dr. Shepard's examination of the account lately published by Elias Smith, concerning original sin, Adam's death, and the last end of the wicked 210
A description of Ephesus, and Paul's preaching there, and the shrine maker's conduct, 221
A description of Tradition 226
A description of fast and thanksgiving days in New-England 227
Present time as it respects the Jews and other things, 228
A description of uncommon Animals, 228

INDEX TO NUMBER VII.

Wickedness of the clergy, 229
The resurrection of the dead, 229
The manner in which Elders Hix, Laurence, and Philips, left the Baptist denomination, 239
A description of the Groton Conference, held in New-Bedford June, 1807. 244
Review of Dr. Baldwin's artillery election sermon, 249
Letter from the Editor of the Christian's Magazine, to the ministers of the United churches, called christians, 250
Calvinistical inconsistenies in Miniature, 257
An account of Jacob and Esau, 258
Dr. Morses new fashion of marrying at the Isle of shoals, 262
Description of the Columbarius 263
Materials for the next number, 263
Dismissal of the Hampton clergyman. 263

INDEX TO NUMBER VIII.

History of the clergy, 264
Eternal Judgment described, 268
Description of Massachusett's State religion, 277
Anecdotes of Luther and the clergy, 287
Remarks on Pharoah's being raised up, 288
Remarks on the Potter and clay, 290
Religious Intelligence, 293
Revival of religion in Salisbury, Mass. 293
Letter from Elder Hathaway to the Editor, 295
Letter from Mr. Brigg to Esq. Chandler, 297
A speech to be made at the grave of State religion when it is buried, 298
An Ode on the death and burial of State religion, 299